(Fast then) Feast for Families -- Dinner and Dialogue on Immigration

Atlanta, GA, March 17, 2014 — Wednesday, March 26th, 7 to 10 pm Yen Jing Chinese Restaurant 5302 Buford Hwy, Doraville, GA 30340

Join AALAC and 9to5 for dinner and dialogue on how immigrants impact our lives and the need for federal immigration reform.

We encourage you to participate by doing the following:

- Fast for 24 hours with us in support of immigration reform and the Fast for Families and the We Belong Together campaigns (starting 7:00 pm, Tuesday March 25th); then

- Feast with us on Wednesday, March 26th, meet friends, hear and share stories of why immigrants are important to our lives.

A multi-course Chinese dinner will be provided. Tickets are just $10 and scholarships are provided if cost is an issue. Reserve your TICKETS HERE.

NEW AALAC Campaign Training

Join AALAC and sponsor the Clarkston Community Center for a DeKalb Candidate Forum -- primary elections are May 20th and we want you to get registered, informed and out to vote!

We have invited candidates from the DeKalb Sheriff special elections, DeKalb School Board Seat #7, and Senate District Race 42 to join us. Audience Q&A and refreshments provided.

Donate online or write a tax-deductible check to AALAC, P.O. Box 922021, Norcross, Georgia 30010. AALAC is a 501(c)(3) charity. Thank you.

About Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Atlanta

Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Atlanta (formerly Asian American Legal Advocacy Center or AALAC) is the first non-profit law center dedicated to Asian immigrants and refugees (“Asian Americans”) in the Southeast.

Our goal is to engage, educate and empower under-represented Asian Americans to greater civic participation.

We are one of five independent organizations that make up the national Asian Americans Advancing Justice. Together with our affiliates in Chicago, DC, Los Angeles and San Francisco, we bring more than 100 years of collective experience in addressing the civil rights issues faced by Asian Americans and other vulnerable and underserved communities.
