Atlanta, GA, May 4, 2017 — Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Atlanta is proud to present, in honor of Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) Heritage Month, SouthEATS 2017, a food festival featuring Atlanta chefs and restaurants on Wednesday, May 10, 2017, from 6-9 pm at Monday Night Brewing. Advancing Justice - Atlanta is a nonprofit organization dedicated to protecting and promoting the civil, social and economic rights of Asian-Americans through public policy, legal services, and civic engagement.

SouthEATS is an Asian food festival featuring restaurants and chefs of Asian-American descent, curated by the founder of We Love BuHi and Advancing Justice - Atlanta board member Marian Liou.

The following restaurants and chefs are confirmed for the event:
Ah-Ma’s Taiwanese Kitchen
Brush Sushi Izakaya
Chai Pani
Char Korean Grill
Chef Allen Suh
Chong Qing Hot Pot
First Wok
Gaja
Happy Valley
Monsoon Masala Kitchen and Sweets
Sweet Auburn BBQ

“Atlanta’s food scene is incredible because of the breadth of its diversity and depth of its talent,” said Marian Liou, “and we love showing off the chefs and restaurants who embody that diversity.”

"We look forward every year to this event, where we celebrate the vibrant and growing Asian American population in Atlanta while raising funds for our organization, Advancing Justice – Atlanta, an active advocate for social justice action on behalf of Asian immigrants and refugees in Georgia.” said Stephanie Cho, Executive Director of Advancing Justice - Atlanta.

Tickets to SouthEATS are available for $45 at southeats2017.eventbrite.com; no tickets will be sold at the door. All proceeds from the event will benefit Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Atlanta.

Please contact the event host Marian Liou at marianielou@gmail.com regarding restaurants or Administrative Assistant Crystal Luk at cluk@advancingjustice-atlanta.org regarding sponsorships or other questions.

About Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Atlanta
Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Atlanta (formerly Asian American Legal Advocacy Center or AALAC) is the first non-profit law center dedicated to Asian immigrants and refugees ("Asian Americans") in the Southeast.

Our goal is to engage, educate and empower under-represented Asian Americans to greater civic participation.

We are one of five independent organizations that make up the national Asian Americans Advancing Justice. Together with our affiliates in Chicago, DC, Los Angeles and San Francisco, we bring more than 100 years of collective experience in addressing the civil rights issues faced by Asian Americans and other vulnerable and underserved communities. Visit www.advancingjustice-atlanta.org.